

Logical-mathematical

Spatial

Linguistic

Bodily-kinesthetic

Musical

Interpersonal

Intrapersonal

Naturalistic

Count the number of words in the Hanukkah blessings.

Figure out how many candles are used across all eight nights.

Create a graph showing how the macabees were outnumbered by the Greek armies.

Create a cover illustration for a book about Hanukkah.

Create a hanukkiah

Make a paper hanukkiah complete with candles to demonstrate proper lighting.

Write a story about a kid who present in the time of the macabees.

Write and recite a short poem about Hanukkah.

Write a joke (knock-knock jokes work great) or two about Hanukkah.

Make up a dance to the dreidel song (Spin, drop on the floor, show off your legs, etc)	Tell the Hanukkah story with a partner. Roll a soft ball back and forth each time you change whose turn it is to speak.	Roll a pair of dice too determine which line in the Hanukkah blessings you practice reading.
--	---	--

With a small group, discuss how you would throw a class Hanukkah party. What would be included, and why?	With a partner, discuss who you would want to be in the Hanukkah story and why?	With a partner, discuss which is more important, the miracle of defeating the Greeks or the miracle of the oil.
--	---	---

Write a journal entry about your favorite part of Hanukkah	Read an article about Hanukkah and make notes about your thoughts.	Create one page that shows your understanding of Hanukkah—you may draw, write, make a comic strip, whatever appeals to you.
--	--	---

Sing the Hanukkah blessings

Make up new words to the Dreidel Song

Listen to a Hanukkah
song

Research how oil was made.

The Maccabees lived in caves. Describe why that was a helpful choice.

Make an edible Hanukkiah

Hannukah

Your Way

Hannukkah Your Way